

Think about it.

1. How is life the sum total of your decisions?
2. What are some of the best decisions that you have made? What are some of the worst?

Discovering the Word.

1. Read Proverbs 3:5-6. What is the promise? What are the conditions and expectations that precede the promise?
2. Read Galatians 4:4-5. What had God decided to do? How is this an example of God's providential will?
3. Read Revelation 20:11-15. What is going to happen to every person? How is this an example of God's providential will?
4. Read 1 Thessalonians 4:3. What is God asking of each person? How is this an example of God's moral will?
5. Read 1 Peter 2:15. What is God asking of each person? How is this an example of God's moral will?
6. Read 1 Corinthians 1:1. Who called Paul to be an apostle? How is this an example of God's personal will?
7. Read 1 Peter 4:9. How is this an example of God's personal will?
8. Why is it important to become familiar with God's providential will?
9. Why is it important to obey God's moral will?
10. How does becoming familiar with God's providential will and obeying God's moral will help you to discover God's personal will?

What will you do?

1. What is keeping you from willingly obeying God's will for your life?
2. Are you willing to submit to God's direction for your life?
3. What question do you truly want God to answer for you? Write it down.
